THE LOCK PRESENTS CLOSING NIGHT

1963

Lockport Township High School Lockport, Illinois –

A Curtain

Rises . . .

... the lights dim — and the performance is about to begin. But this is no ordinary Saturday evening show: it is the closing night. Tomorrow will bring a new play — new sets, new faces, new lines, a new way of life. The very spirit of the building will take on a different aspect. Tonight the audience seems to feel the approaching end, and the air is heavy with reminiscence.

Thus it is with us this year. In June an era will end and be no more. There will never again be a Lockport Township High School. Yes, the building will remain, but the school will be changed indeed. Now we too are looking back as we see this last performance of our play.

It has had a long run — it opened more than 50 years ago, and has become more popular each succeeding year. Countless casts have come and gone. For some, this play has been but a steppingstone on the way to greater glory. For others it has been the peak of their fame. For all it has been at least a memorable experience, Some of these actors have left deep marks; some merely carved in the desks, others in the history of the school. All have added something to what it has become.

The play itself has a varied plot. It is comedy and tragedy — laughter and tears. It is learning and growing, listening and talking, trouble and fun, good times and sad. It has all the ingredients of every play ever written, but it is unique to Lockport.

All is quiet now, the stage is set. Good. On with the show!

"Music Man" Marching Band

Unmistakable champions, your musicians have brought much pleasure to all who have been fortunate enough to hear and see them. As I have done many times before, I am proud to again applaud them for having achieved through their hard work a standard of excellence unsurpassed in their field.

Arthur Godfrey

I will never forget the boys and girls of Lockport's Music Man Marching Band swinging down Mason City's main street in their smart distinctive uniforms (Bless you for those skirts, girls) with the determination-look of champions or else! And I can still hear Arthur Godfrey's voice ringing in my ears, "The first place winner is Lockport, Illinois!" Congratulations on the immortality you have won for your school and your hometown.

Meredith Willson

The dedication of a book is often bestowed on great men, but rarely on a great organization. We would like to take exception to this general rule, for we have found an organization entirely worthy of that honor. The 1963 LOCK is dedicated to the Lockport Township High School "Music Man" Marching Band. Their praise, however, shall not come from us, but from people who are better judges than we. The praises of these men, important in the entertainment world, must be more appreciated than our own untutored plaudits. Our congratulations to the band for a fine record will suffice.

All my best wishes to each and every member of the National Championship "Music Man" Marching Band. During the many years that I have been working for Warner Bros. I have had many wonderful assignments, but I can honestly say that none was more enjoyable than working with the Lockport Township High School Band. I'm proud of all of you for the brilliant musical organization that you are, but I'm even more proud of you for being the greatest group of teen-agers that I have ever had the privilege of knowing. Good luck to every one of you in all your future undertakings.

Felix Greenfield

I am happy to hear that you are going to dedicate your 1963 year-book to the National Championship Music Man Marching Band—a truly great band! It is very inspiring to see young people participating in such fine work—it shows what initiative they have. It was indeed a pleasure to have this wonderful band on "American Bandstand." My sincere best wishes to all of you.

Supervising all that composed the 1962-63 school year, the able producers created a picture that will long be remembered by those who saw it.

The Board of Education selects the directors and other necessary persons who will best help us to prepare ourselves for the uncertain years ahead. Working with the community, these industrious men staged the finale for Lockport Township High School as one school

The administration works within our high school building Each day they participate in school activities which enable them to give us direct guidance

As the curtain rises for the conclusion of our play, we realize that it was made possible only by the combined cooperation of the administration, students, and members of the community Next year the plans for "shooting" the year's picture will be very challenging.

Stage Crew

Among our active personnel are the busy cafeteria workers who provide us with nutritional lunches daily and have even found time for a cookie break for the freshmen. The maintenance crew keep the building warm in sub-zero weather and clean the halls after 2000 students have tramped through them. Our stage crew works behind the scenes of every Lockport High School production.

Leading the cast of students at LTHS are the seniors. They, like retiring actors, are making their final appearances in this grand old drama of high school. They are leaving this stage — taking with them countless memories — all of them just a little saddened by the closing curtain. Gay and carefree, they take a final fling before stepping into the world of adulthood and independence

CLASSES

The silence is overpowering — the audience rapt. At last the stillness is broken by the closing of a book — then another, and another. Feet shuffle, chairs squeak, papers rustle. Suddenly a bell rings — long and loud. The room is instantly alive as every student heads for the door at once. So it goes each day as the students of LTHS make their way through a maze of class schedules and crowded balls — moving forward every step of the way

"Not yet, Marianne, it's not loaded

The Jonior Class officers, Marianne Rometto, vice-president, Rich McCain, treasurer, Steve Etter, president, and Jeanne Anderson, secretary, are usually on the other side of the spot-

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming, plays, dances — plain and fancy — and finally Prom, the moments that memories are made of. These few hours of extra-curricular activities, hours of sharing entertainment and relaxation with fellow-students, bring the whole picture of school life into focus. The gym, transformed by crepe paper and soft lights, or sawdust on the floor; the auditorium, filled with waiting audiences — the school puts on a party air and seems to glow with excitement At times like these, the mundane studies of Monday morning are forgotten and Pleasure reigns supreme. Comedy, romance — the lighter side of our play — these are what we will remember in the years to come Reverberating to the primitive cries of the puze winning Juniors, the Homecoming Parade ushered in one of 1962's most memorable events. After the parade the students to aid themselves swept into the contagious atmosphere of school spirit generated by the cheerleaders at the pep assembly.

This enthusiastic attitude was maintained by the team and spectators throughout the game. The half-time activities, organized by the "L" Club, were highlighted by the presentation of roses to Queen Melanic and her court. Lockport's marching band, preceded by some of the outstanding homecoming floats added to the success of the traditional activities.

Reigning over the festivities in all royal splendor were King Pete Fulton and Queen Melanie Berta. The traditional homecoming dance served as a fitting climax to this occasion

The scene opened on a secluded little town in Iowa, 1910. Reverend and Mrs. Spence and their children, Hartzell and Engen were new residents of Laketon. Reverend Spence had just been appointed minister of the domineering congregate in On arrival to their new home, the old, dilapidated parsonage was truly a sight to behold

The members of the family went on to relate their pleasures and their hardships, the wonderful surprises, and the discouraging disappointments, which led to many hilanous situations

Those who participated in the play will cherish many memories from the experience and enjoyment

The National Honor Society instituted this talent show as their annual project to encoura students to use their talents in service for the school. The spotlight focused on acts ranging from modern dance routines and jazz bands to humorous dialogues. The performances were reviewed by a spirited audience that was surprised by Lockport's variety of fine talent. It is said that the back stage crew is just as important to the performers. Certainly in this case it was no exception. Mrs. March. Honor Society sponsor, and members of National Honor Society gave of their time and service to make Lockport Highlighters a success.

On Stage

Again in 1962-63, Lockport's Porters were led by an enthusiastic cheerleading octet. This year six upperclassmen and two stall mores were chosen to keep the Porter banner flying high. Under the experienced leadership of Carol Djerf and Cathy Pike, co-captains, and Mrs. Thompson, sponsor, the girls introduced a medley of unique cheers which were quickly accepted by the student body. The girls devoted many hours to practice and were rewarded by the admiration of all before whom they performed. They kept everyone's spirits soar not and shared in the teams' many victories throughout the football and basketball seasons. On stage and off, Lockport salutes her athletic actresses

What happens when an irresistible force meets an immovable object? Carl Sandburg found out in their only loss of the season as their highly touted defense crumbled against the Porter onslaught to the tune of 21-9 during Lockport's first game of the season. The victorious Lockport squad, led by team captains Fulton Dystrup, and Philips, then dropped a close one to Joliet Catholic on the Hillioppers' turf. No points were scored in the next game when Bloom found Lockport's defense equal to its own. The Porters next went on to overpower Argo during Lockport's first home game of the season Despite some brilliant teamwork sparked by Pete Fulton's mighty right arm, the Porters were beaten back in their Homecoming gaine by an aggressive Kankakee squad Unbowed, Lockport came back with a vengeance as the Porter Hustlers plowed through the Cardinal lines to wt tewash the Blue Island team in what amounted to a 'patriotically" colorful game. Beaten by the conference champion Steelmen of Johet, Lockport bobbed up and shattered any dreams of victory that Thornton might have had. Thornridge, true to its name, stuck the Porters in the final game of the season to make Lockport's record four wins, four losses, and one tie-

Sophomores rejoice over the Thornridge victory which gave them an 8-1 record, good enough to tie for first place in the SSL

From the moment the Portermites took the field and tromped Carl Sandburg 27—6. Coach Seitzberg and Coach Jackson knew they had a winning team. To prove their coaches were correct, the sophs rolled up an 8—1 season record and tied for first place with Johet in the South Suburban League. The Portermite offensive team piled up 94 points during their nine games while the defensive squad held all opposition to only 25 markers. The defensive unit was never scored on in conference play. The multi-milers posted their three victories over Reavis, Argo, and a rough Thornton outfit. One of the team's most impressive showings of the campaign was their third place firish in the Tinley Park Invitational. The harners also finished a respectable ninth in the district held at Rich Cen ral and seventh in the rugged South Suburban League Conference held at Kanka-kee

The Portermites found things a little tougher, however, as they managed to win only two of their twelve meets. Throughout the whole season, the harriers showed their true Lockport spirit as they sacrificed both their time and energy for the team and the school

Because of a shortage of upperclassmen, Lock-port's varsity track squad again finished their season on an unsuccessful note. The condemnent did, however, manage to win one dual meet over Argo, and two triangular meets. Although placing eighth in the South Suburban League, the highlight of the season was their second place finish in the Will County District Meet. John Peterson's time of 4:37.5 in the nule run was one of the many varsity records set this year. Bill Ford also distinguished himself by breaking the high jump record with his jump of 6½ feet from capta. (then Basses, es explore tom, on the mound led the way for a 12-1 record and selection to the all-conference squad.

Led by strong pitching and hitting, the varsity baseball team posted a brilliant 15—3 record that included the 6th consecutive district, 3rd regional, and first sectional title in the lustory of LTHS basebal

Led by right-hander Chuck Ballantine, the pitching staff held their opponents hitless for 23½ unnings. These games included a no-hitter by Ray Ryan and a perfect game by Mike Murawski back to back in district play and innumerable no-hitters by Ballantine. The power to back up the pitching was supplied by Lockport's answer to the New York Yankees, Pete Fulton, Mike Murawski, and Andy Dystrup

Amid the praises given to the squad, the one that sums up the reason for the success comes from Coach William Kappmeyer Probably one of the best ball teams to come out of Lockport High School. Their determination, destricted to be the property of the well organized club."

Lockport's Linksters made school history as they became the first Lockport team to reach the state finals. Downstate they finished a respectable tenth. They accomplished this feat by winning the district held at rugged Big Run with a four man total of 326

Coach Ed Hill's golfers were also successful in regular season matches posting a won-loss record of thirteen wins, one loss, and one tie, the best record ever for the golf squad. They were undefeated in conference matches and in the conference tournament the golfers walked off with everything but the tee markers. The link-sters captured the team championship with a four man total of 325 and also three of the first five individual positions.

The key to the golf squad's success this year was their tremendous depth. The varsity consisted of four juniors and four seniors, and all were capable of capturing medalist honors. Next year the golf squad will have great potential as, in addition to the four net rung extension the sophemore squad this year looked very promising.

Tennis Tumbles

To coach Robert Hess's regret, in spring a young man's thoughts turn to something other than tennis. Accordingly, the varsity fell 0—12, a record the frosh-soph matched perfectly. The main burden fell on the four seniors, a fact which may hinder future squads. In spite of this the underclassmen who did play varsity have gained valuable experience.

ORGANIZATIONS

Moving backstage, forever active and industrious, are the many clubs and organizations. They provide a means of expression of every type of talent or interest, ranging from drama and music to farming. Many provide a dress rehearsal for the very roles these students will be playing after they have graduated. Others give them a chance to play a part in the government of the school Still others offer an interesting and creative form of relaxation. All of them create a meaningful interlude in the monotony of classes.

Round the clock the year round the Student Council stands ready to assist the student body. Pre-school freshman orientation, co-ordination of Homecomine activities, and the annual turnabout week occupied the council members' time during the fall. At Christmas Santa Claus received a helping hand as the council distributed Christmas cards. Rounding out the list of special activities was the spring semi-formal dance, "Pink Champagne."

Serving all throughout the year, the council handled the concessions at home games and operated the lost and found. Even more important, it acted as a sounding board for student suggestions and complaints.

The "Music Man Marching Band," under the leadership of Ernest Caneva and Herbert Tatroe has once again brought fame and renown to Lockport Township High School

On June 19,1962, the LTHS band at Mason City Iowa. anxiously awaited the important announcement, "The national champion and official band of Meredith Wilson's 'Music Man' is Lockport Township High School." The stadium shook with a great roar; hats were thrown into the air and tears of joy were shed by many

This triumph was just the beginning. From Mason City, the band immediately left on an all expense paid trip to New York City, Washington, D.C., Philadelphia, Dick Clark's American Bandstand, and back to New York for a two day appearance on the Arthur Godfrev Radio Show During the trip the band entertained the public by playing concerts at Coney Island, the Capitol steps, and the Na-

Upon their return to Lockport, the band kept up its fast pace and good work. It entertained overwhelming crowds on the Fourth of July, at the Music Festival in Chicago, at Moorehead, Munnesota, as well as the home crowds right here in Lockport. They gave enjoyment to many people with their annual Christmas Concert on the 16th of December and with their annual Spring Concert on March 3rd In addition, they marched at every home footbal game

During the past vest the Future Teachers of America, under the helpful gualance of Mrs. Kramer, compiled a successful record of enlightenment and experience. The club's main purposes are to enable members to study the qualities and aptitudes basic to successful teaching, to acquire an understanding of the public school system, and to accure information on vocational opportunities in education.

The highlight of the '62-'63 academic year was the attendance of the FTA members at the regional workshop at Lincoln-Way High School. For pecuniary gain the future paper-graders worked with paper cups at the concession stands at home football and basketball games

At their bismonthly meetings, the Future Teachers wen entertained by guest speciers and panel discussions, which provide valuable information on the teaching profession. Mrs Kramer spent much time during the year helping the studiets progress to the transfer of the progress to the prog

The 1962-63 school year saw the birth of a new school organization, the Junior Medical Club, which is combined from the older Future Nurses of America and the Junior Red Cross. The club's main project for the year was a sale of plastic book covers for our yearbooks. The group also entered a very clever walking unit in the Homecoming Parade.

Closely associated with the Junior Medical Club are the Health Room aiges. If you have ever had a headache, a cut, or sinus congestion, you have probably been in the Health Room, where these future nurses and doctors dole out aspirin and Kleenex like professionals. #### GAA — Girls

Opening each year with a list of activities GAA offers organized recreation to all girls. With the leadership of the four girls' gym teachers, the girls receive many happy hours of enjoyment in GAA during the school year. To start off the year were volleyball, a basket-shooting contest, life saving, golf and two sessions of bowling

Among the many clubs and organizations at Lockport High School is the Future Business Leaders of America. Students desiring to enter the business world upon graduation find this group especially fascinatur.

The regular meeting of the FB.L.A. consists of lectures by prominent leaders of the community, interesting movies on the different phases of business, and panel discussion groups. For their field trip this year, the Lockport Leaders along with Mrs. Manwaring, their sponsor, were informed of some aspects of the world of communication

Success is the aftermath of hard work and hard work is to be had in any business. To be prepared for your future, F.B.L.A is certainly the organization to join and support

Farmers Focus on the Future

The Future Farmers of America is an or at the posed of boys who are interested in a reculture. It is the bers of Lockport's club have co-operated with their starts or, Mr. Lawrence, to form a very active branch.

Among their money raising projects this year were a paper drive and a car wash. The members also supplied the students with a very dependable coat check. The coat went to the International Livestock Show in Chicara where they were presented with two first place and four second place awards

The boys involved in Future Farmers have proved a great credit to our school and our comm nity, and have gone far toward becoming at 1. I and informed farmers.

The boys, assisted by Mr. Jorgenson, the club sponsor, are always ready, willing, and able to run projection equipment. Almost every student at Lockport has enjoyed having a pause in his day by seeing an interesting film, which could not have been shown if a member of the Projectionist Club had not been present. Filmstrips are used in almost every subject which makes the services rendered by these students a vital one. We all a make the services rendered by these boys do to get the rest of the stress of the classes and we hope they keep up the good work.
